About the Author

Hello I am Pyotr ! I am going to talk you about my creator. Well, he is a talented programmer full of ideas living at the north suburbs of Atiika, at beautiful Greece!!

He was born at 1978 at Athens and since then he is constantly programming... he he.. (too good to be true huh?) He is student of Agricultural University of Athens,Greece. His first contact with a programming language goes back to 1995, with Fortran 77.It was then that the ideas about the creation of a chess program were born.

His hobbies are chess, tennis and surfing ...the web !!

Pfeww !! I am tired of speaking about him, ENOUGH ! It's time to learn more about me, so move to next sites !!
